WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low cut clothing are not permitted.
 - Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie
 - Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
 - Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.
- We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

SAINT FRANCES XAVIER CABRINI

December 22 – Patroness of Immigrants

Francesca Cabrini was born on July 15, 1850, in the village of Sant' Angelo....She was the thirteenth child of a farmer's family...At thirteen Francesca was sent to a private school kept by the Daughters of the Sacred Heart. Here she remained for 5 years, taking the course that led to a teacher's certificate...Returning home Francesca was offered a temporary position as a substitute teacher in a village school....Father Antonio Serrati, had been observing her ardent spirit of service and was making plans for her future. From the start he had great confidence in her abilities, and now he gave her a most difficult task. She was to go to a disorganized and badly run orphanage in a nearby town. Francesca was charged "to put things right," a large order in view of her youth--she was but twenty-four--and the complicated human factors in the situation. The next six years were a period of training in tact and diplomacy, as well as in the everyday, practical problems of running such an institution. She worked quietly and effectively devoting herself to the young girls under her supervision and winning their affection and cooperation. Francesca assumed the nun's habit, and in three years took her vows. By this time her ecclesiastical superiors were impressed by her performance and made her Mother Superior of the institution...As the years went on a new and greater challenge awaited the intrepid nun, a chance to fulfill the old dream of being a missionary to a distant land. A burning question of the day in Italy was the plight of Italians in foreign countries...On March 31, 1889 she and seven nuns landed in New York where she continued her lifelong work of opening orphanages, schools, and hospitals. As a saint of our own time and as the first United States citizen to be elevated to sainthood, Mother Cabrini has a double claim on our interest. Foundress of the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart and pioneer worker for the welfare of dispersed Italian nationals, this diminutive nun was responsible for the establishment of nearly seventy orphanages, schools, and hospitals, scattered over eight countries in Europe, North, South, and Central America...Taken from Lives of the Saints - With Excerpts from their Writings, pages 458-464

Spiritual Thought for the Week

Much more is obtained by a single word of the Our Father said from the heart every so often, than by saying the whole Our Father many times but hastily and distractedly.
