

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

Saint Angela Merici, V – June 1

Foundress of the Ursulines, born 21 March, 1474, at Desenzano, a small town on the shore of Lake Garda in Lombardy; died 27 January, 1540, at Brescia. She was left an orphan at the age of ten and together with her elder sister came to the home of her uncle where they led an angelic life. When her sister met with a sudden death, without being able to receive the last sacraments, young Angela was much distressed. She became a tertiary of St. Francis and increased her prayers and mortifications for the repose of her sister's soul. In her anguish and pious simplicity she prayed God to reveal to her the condition of her sister. By a vision she was satisfied her sister was in the company of the saints in heaven.

When she was 20 years old, her uncle died, and she returned to her paternal home. Convinced that the great need of her times was a better instruction of young girls in the rudiments of the Christian religion, she converted her home into a school where at stated intervals she daily gathered all the little girls of Desenzano and taught them the elements of Christianity. It is related that one day, while in an ecstasy, she had a vision in which it was revealed to her that she was to found an association of virgins who were to devote their lives to the religious training of young girls. The school she had established at Desenzano soon bore abundant fruit, and she was invited to the neighboring city, Brescia, to establish a similar school at that place. Angela gladly accepted the invitation.

In 1524, while making a pilgrimage to the Holy Land, she became suddenly blind on the island of Crete, but continued her journey to the Holy Places and was cured on her return while praying before a crucifix at the same place where she was struck with blindness. When, in the jubilee year 1525, she had come to Rome to gain the indulgences, Pope Clement VII invited her to remain in Rome; but Angela, who shunned publicity, returned to Brescia. Finally, on the 25th of November, 1535, Angela chose twelve virgins and laid the foundation of the order of the Ursulines in a small house near the Church of St. Afra in Brescia. Having been five years superior of the newly-founded order, she died. Her body lies buried in the Church of St. Afra at Brescia. She was beatified in 1768, by Clement XIII, and canonized in 1807, by Pius VII. NewAdvent.org

Mary Immaculate Queen Parish Announcements

CONGRATULATIONS to our First Communicants and their families on this very joyful occasion. Let us pray that these children will always preserve their souls as white and shining as they are today!

HOLYDAY OF OBLIGATION: This Thursday is the feast of the Ascension, a holyday of obligation. Please note the Mass times as given in the bulletin and be sure to keep the day holy.

SPECIAL EVENTS: Please note the special events for this week, as given on the bulletin insert two weeks ago. Tomorrow we have the Queenship procession, following the 8:00 am Mass. Please bring a bouquet of flowers to present to Our Lady at her shrine.

PARISH CLEANING: A new cleaning list will be made in the next week. Due to the increase in space to be cleaned it would be best for two small families to clean together. If you think you fit in this category please call our parish secretary to let her know what families will be partners. Summer months include the cleaning of the bathrooms.

MAY SHRINE: All parishioners are welcome to bring fresh flowers to adorn our May shrine at the church. We also encourage you to decorate a May shrine in your home and recite prayers each day before it in honor of our Mother and Queen.
