

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

CHILDREN LEARN WHAT THEY LIVE

By Dorothy Law Nolte, Ph.D.

If children live with criticism, they learn to condemn.
If children live with hostility, they learn to fight.
If children live with fear, they learn to be apprehensive.
If children live with pity, they learn to feel sorry for themselves.
If children live with ridicule, they learn to feel shy.
If children live with jealousy, they learn to feel envy.
If children live with shame, they learn to feel guilty.
If children live with encouragement, they learn confidence.
If children live with tolerance, they learn patience.
If children live with praise, they learn appreciation.
If children live with acceptance, they learn to love.
If children live with approval, they learn to like themselves.
If children live with recognition, they learn it is good to have a goal.
If children live with sharing, they learn generosity.
If children live with honesty, they learn truthfulness.
If children live with fairness, they learn justice.
If children live with kindness and consideration, they learn respect.
If children live with security, they learn to have faith in themselves and in those about them.
If children live with friendliness, they learn the world is a nice place in which to live.

St. Mary Magdalene, Penitent
St. Mary, whom Jesus converted, and who witnessed His last moments in company with Mary, His mother, and St. John, the beloved disciple, was called Magdalen from the town of Magdala in Galilee. At least St. Clement of Alexandria and others identify the penitent woman who washed Jesus' feet with her tears with Mary Magdalene.

She was by descent a Galilean, and followed Jesus with other devout women. Some also suppose that she was the same Mary who was the sister of Martha and Lazarus. After His Resurrection, Jesus appeared first to Mary Magdalen and then to His Apostles. The feast of St. Mary Magdalen is celebrated by the Greeks as well as the Latins on July 22nd.

PRAYER: We beseech Thee, O Lord, that we be helped by the intercession of Blessed Mary Magdalen, by whose prayers Thou raised her brother Lazarus to life after he had been dead four days. Amen. Lives of the Saints, pgs. 279-280
