

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight, or low-cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

SAINT PETER CLAVER
September 9

Born at Verdu, Catalonia, in Spain, St Peter Claver studied at the University of Bologna and became a Jesuit. He was ordained at Cartagena in South America, where for forty-four years he was the Apostle of the negro slaves. Cartagena became the chief slave mart of the New World. A thousand slaves landed there each month. Neither the repeated censures of the Pope, nor those of Catholic moralists could prevail against this cupidity. The missionaries could not suppress slavery, but only alleviate it, and no one worked more heroically than Peter Claver.

He became a daring and ingenious organizer. Every month when the arrival of the negroes was signaled, St. Peter Claver went out to meet them on the pilot's boat, carrying food and delicacies. The negroes cooped up in the hold, arrived crazed and brutalized by suffering and fear. St. Peter Claver went to each, cared for him, and showed him kindness, and made him understand that henceforth he was his defender and father. He thus won their good will. To instruct so many speaking different dialects, St. Peter Claver assembled at Cartagena a group of interpreters of various nationalities, of whom he made catechists. While the slaves were penned up at Cartagena waiting to be purchased and dispersed, St. Peter Claver instructed and baptized them in the Faith. During his life he baptized and instructed in the Faith more than 300,000 negroes. He was beatified 16 July, 1850 by Pius IX, and canonized 15 January, 1888, by Leo XIII. On 7 July, 1896, he was proclaimed the special patron of all the Catholic missions among the negroes. newadvent.org

Mary Immaculate Queen Parish Announcements

SUNDAY BREAKFAST: There will be a breakfast after the 9:00 am Mass this morning, for the support of our school.

SUNDAY MASS SCHEDULE: Due to requests we have received, beginning next Sunday we will return to our previous schedule of 3 Sunday Masses. There will be a 10:30 am Mass beginning on September 12th, in addition to the normal 7:00 and 9:00 am Masses. This will be on a trial basis for a month to see how well attended the 3rd Mass is.

CHURCH HISTORY CLASS: There will be a class this Thursday, September 9, at 7:00 pm in the seminary classroom. All parishioners are welcome to attend.

FEAST OF OUR LADY’S NATIVITY is this Wednesday. There will be a High Mass at 10:45 in honor of Our Blessed Mother. We will continue to pray the novena over the next few days, in preparation for this feast and for the success of the new school year, as well as all the intentions that have been submitted.

CONGRATULATIONS to Christopher and Christina Perlin, on the occasion of the baptism of their newborn son Leo Dominic. The baptism took place last Saturday.

MASS STIPENDS: Due to a large backlog of Mass intentions, the priests are not able to accept any Mass stipends until further notice.
