

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

Originating in Germany several hundred years ago, it has recently become a cherished custom for many families throughout America. Children are deeply impressed with the beautiful symbolism of the Advent Wreath. Their anticipation of Christmas, the Birthday of Christ, increases as the ceremonies progress each week of Advent.

The wreath without beginning and end stands for eternity; the greens for life and growth; the four candles, preferably of beeswax and blessed and set aside since Candlemas, present the ages “sitting in darkness and the shadow of death,” each candle adding more light until on Christmas the light from the wreath sets off, as it were, the blaze of light on the “tree of life,” the Christmas tree, for the time is fulfilled.

The Blessing of the Wreath should take place on Saturday evening before the first Sunday of Advent. Before the evening meal the father, or in his absence, the head of the household, performs the blessing in the presence of the entire family. The following prayers are suggested:

All: Who hath made heaven and earth.

All Amen.

Dec. 5	School Support Breakfast; St. Nicholas' visit
7	Vigil of the Immaculate Conception; fast and abstinence
8	Immaculate Conception; holyday of Obligation
12	Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe; Mexican Fiesta breakfast

15, 17, 18 Ember Days

19 Annual School Christmas
Program

Advent Wreath – Week One

Father: O Lord, stir up Thy power, we beg Thee, and come, that by Thy protection we may deserve to be rescued from the threatening dangers of our sins and be saved by Thy deliverance. Through Christ our Lord. All: Amen.

One candle is then lighted by the youngest child and left burning during the evening meal.

Mary Immaculate Queen Parish Announcements

SEASON OF ADVENT begins today. Let us all be sure to spend Advent well, in spiritual preparation for Christmas, avoiding the spirit of the world, which is so detrimental to the spiritual life.

SUNDAY BREAKFAST after the 9:00 am Mass next Sunday, for the support of our school. Also, there will be a visit by Saint Nicholas for children 12 and under.

NOVENA: Tomorrow begins the annual novena in preparation for the feast of the Immaculate Conception.

CONFRATERNITY OF CHRISTIAN MOTHERS: There will be a meeting his Sat., Dec. 4, after Mass.

APOLOGETICS CLASS: There will be a class this Thurs., Dec. 2, at the seminary at 7:00 pm.

POINSETTIAS: Those who wish to sponsor one (or more) of the poinsettias for the altar for Christmas may do so by enclosing a donation of $15 per plant in a clearly marked envelope and placing it in the collection no later than December 20.

NEW STAINED-GLASS WINDOWS: The current debt, due in January, is $85,900. Those who make a significant contribution will have their names listed on a plaque in the vestibule.

OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE INDULGENCE: Today is the fourth of five Sundays on which you may gain a plenary indulgence in the church.
