

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight, or low-cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

Saint Nicholas, Bishop & Confessor
December 6

It is the common opinion that St. Nicholas was a native of Patara in Lycia, Asia Minor, He became a monk in the monastery of Holy Sion near Myra. Of this house he was made Abbot by the Archbishop, its founder. When the See of Myra, the capital of Lycia, fell vacant, St. Nicholas was appointed its Archbishop. It is said that he suffered for the Faith under Diocletian, and that he was present at the Council of Nice as an opponent of Arianism. His death occurred at Myra, in the year 342.

The characteristic virtue of St. Nicholas appears to have been his charity for the poor. It is also related that he was mortified and abstemious from his very infancy. St. Nicholas is regarded as the special patron of children, and our well-known Santa Claus is a corruption of St. Nicholas. The Emperor Justinian built a church in his honor at Constantinople in the suburb of Blacharnæ, about the year 340. He has always been honored with great veneration in the Latin and Greek Churches. The Russian Church seems to honor him more than any other saint who lived since the days of the Apostles. His body was first laid to rest at Myra where it remained several centuries until the year 1087, when some Italian merchants carried it to Bari, where it was placed in the church of St. Stephen. Lives of the Saints, pgs. 479-480

PRAYER: O God, who adorned the hoy Bishop Nicholas with countless miracles, grant, we beech Thee, that by his merits and prayers we may be derived from the flames of hell. Amen.
