

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight, or low-cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie.
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church, and we look forward to seeing you again.

PRAYER TO ST. RITA

Patroness of Impossible Cases

O God, who didst vouchsafe to communicate so great a grace to St. Rita that she imitated Thine example in the love of enemies and bore in her heart and on her countenance the sacred marks of Thy love and passion: grant, we beseech Thee, by her merits and intercession, that we may love our enemies and ever contemplate with deep contrition the sorrows of Thy Passion: Who livest and reignest world without end. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days, once a day. A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions if the daily recitation of this prayer is continued for a month.

SAINT RITA OF CASCIA

May 22

Born at Rocca Porena in the Diocese of Spoleto, 1386; died at the Augustinian convent of Cascia, 1456. Feast, 22 May. Represented as holding roses, or roses and figs, and sometimes with wound in her forehead.

According to the "Life" (Acta SS., May, V, 224) written at the time of her beatification by the Augustinian, Jacob Carelicci, from two older biographies, she was the daughter of parents advanced in years and distinguished for charity which merited them the surname of "Peacemakers of Jesus Christ". Rita's great desire was to become a nun, but, in obedience to the will of her parents, she, at the age of twelve married a man extremely cruel and ill-tempered. For eighteen years she was a model wife and mother. When her husband was murdered she tried in vain to dissuade her twin sons from attempting to take revenge; she appealed to Heaven to prevent such a crime on their part, and they were taken away by death, reconciled to God. She applied for admission to the Augustinian convent at Cascia, but being a widow, was refused. By continued entreaties, and, as is related, by Divine intervention, she gained admission, received the habit of the order and in due time her profession. As a religious she was an example for all, excelled in mortifications, and was widely known for the efficacy of her prayers.

Urban VIII, in 1637, permitted her Mass and Office. On account of the many miracles reported to have been wrought at her intercession she received in Spain the title of La Santa de los impossibles. She was solemnly canonized 24 May, 1900.

Mary Immaculate Queen Parish Announcements

CONFRATENITY OF MIQ will have a meeting this Saturday following the morning Mass.

VIGIL OF PENTECOST: This Saturday, May 23rd, is the Vigil of Pentecost and is a day of fast and partial abstinence. Those bound to the Church fast must fast on Saturday, and all Catholics who are at least 7 years of age may have meat only once on Saturday.

ANNUAL NOVENA in honor of the Holy Ghost will continue throughout this week, in preparation for the feast of Pentecost.

CONFIRMATION PREPARATION: The second class will be held this Saturday, May 23 at 2:00 pm. Although the class will be live-streamed, we encourage those who are preparing for confirmation to be present. Also, if you have not yet filled out the Confirmation information form, please take one from the vestibule table and return it filled out this week.

MASS IN COEUR D’ALENE: Fr. Julian Gilchrist has Mass at Our Mother of Perpetual Help Chapel

(517 Mill Ave., Coeur d’Alene) on Wednesday & Friday at 7:00 am.

PARENTS: If you bring small children to the Communion rail during the distribution of Holy Communion, please do not allow them to stand on the kneeling pad. They should either kneel or they may stand on the floor by your side. Also, please make sure the priest (especially visiting priest) is aware of which children may receive Holy Communion.

MONTH OF MAY: All are welcome to bring bouquets for parish May shrine to Our Lady. (Please be sure to mark your vase with your name.) The Rosary is prayed daily at 7:00 pm throughout this month. Also, there is a sign-up sheet in the vestibule for those who would like to provide a crown for Our Lady’s statue.

EASTER DUTY: We remind the faithful of the serious obligation of receiving Holy Communion during the Easter Time, which extends from the First Sunday of Lent until Trinity Sunday (May 31st).
